

ST SILAS' YOUTH FELLOWSHIP

Youth Fellowship aims to enable effective learning, worship and holistic development of young people through nurturing of relationships in the community of faith, equipping them to reach their generation for Christ and serve the wider church in ways appropriate to gifting and ability.

You can get involved through: -

- mentoring and pastoral care
- leading or helping with music/singing
- preparing teaching activities, drama, games
- facilitating/helping with small group discussion and activities
- preparing audio/visual resources or presentations
- designing art work, planning and organising art activities
- organising social activities and events
- prayer ministry and intercession

(Involvement is subject to satisfactory application, interview & disclosure.)

There are currently two groups:-

younger/mid teens normally meeting on Sunday evenings from 5-6.30pm in the church.

mid teens/early 20s normally meeting on Sunday evenings from 8-9.30pm in the church and other local venues.
